Children's Newsletter

Another week has flown by and the mornings are starting to get a lot darker. Next Sunday, 29th November will be our first Sunday in Advent, a time of preparation leading up to Christmas. I'm sure you are all already excited about Christmas and the long school holiday. To me it is a time for sharing and I love giving gifts to people and sharing time with them. Maybe this week you could think of someone who would appreciate your sharing, whether that is just a friendly word, a smile, a joke even or some time spent with them. Have a great week.

God bless.

Lisa
