Easter - Fear and joy!

A reflection by Revd Canon Terry Joyce

On the first Easter morning, two people rose early to go to the tomb. They met an angel who said 'He is not here: he is risen.' In that moment, their life completely changed. They ran. They ran, with fear and great joy – with fear, gasping for breath; and with joy, probably bursting with excitement. Fear and great joy: at the heart of the resurrection and in our hearts today. So much to fear after this last year – will it calm down, how much more sadness, frustration and stress, how many more deaths? Fear for those who have suffered, for those we love, those we still can't see, fear about the fragility of life - will things ever be the same again? So much to fear.

But also joy! Great joy! The joy of spring lambs in the fields; joy of a new-born baby suckling; joy of the harvest, when all is fresh and mellow. The joy of friendship, of those we have depended upon through challenge, and those who have needed us. The joy of creation, when we hear birds sing on a spring morning. The joy of being part of a team, sharing an enterprise. The joy of the orchestra, about to break into a thrilling crescendo. The joy of art and the skill of those who craft it. Great, great joy.

So here we are, the angel now telling us that he is risen! What might that mean? We start to run with fear and great joy. Fear and joy, like two poles. Fear and joy run with us throughout our lives together, as constant reminders of the cost and promise of following Jesus. Fear and joy, at the heart of our longings and desires.

But, there is a secret - that we only glimpse at in this life! It was first shared with those who went early to the tomb. It is the secret about Easter, which I hope will make your Easter. It solves the mystery of fear and joy.

The secret is this: joy wins!

Easter blessings

Terry Joyce

Parish Churches News & Events

May you all have a Happy and Blessed Easter!

Services this week

Our online service of Morning Prayer will be available Tuesday to Thursday this coming week (6th to 8th April), but not on Bank Holiday Monday. Mark Poole will be hosting the zoom services, as Nick will be on annual leave. Compline will also be offered as usual on the Wednesday 7th.

Broadcast of York Mystery Plays for Easter

BBC Radio York will be broadcasting the York Theatre Royal Mystery Plays' version of the Crucifixion on Good Friday and the Resurrection on Easter Sunday. Our very own Ged Murray is part of these productions. The Crucifixion focus on the banter of the soldiers and Pontius Pilate, and so highlights the banality of the evil Jesus faced. The Resurrection is much more focused on the three Marys, the Angel and Jesus. The plays will be broadcast at 6.30am & 1.30pm on Good Friday & Easter Sunday and will then be available for downloading from BBC Sounds.

Easter Trails

are set up at each of the parish churches. The trails use the 'In search of Easter' materials which are part of Scripture Union's 'On The Trail' series.

PCC secretary vacancy.

If you've got the time and necessary word processing skills and have been hoping that someone else would volunteer to take on the role of PCC secretary, then I'm sorry to say they haven't. Maybe God is calling YOU to step up to the mark? Eve, our current PCC secretary is happy to receive informal enquiries to discuss what is involved (eve\_scoreby@hotmail.com)

Save the date!
