Children's Newsletter

I hope you are having a great half-term and looking forward to the Easter break. Yesterday was Mothering Sunday and I'm sure you all spoilt your mums, grandma's, aunties and helped them have a really special day. We also put the clocks forward, so lost an hour of sleep but we now gain an extra hour of daylight as the warmer weather approaches. Although the weatherman is now forecasting snow This week! On Friday it is April Fool's Day, which is celebrated on 1st April every year. And has been celebrated for hundreds of years It is a day for having a bit of fun, when people play practical jokes on each other. I wonder who you could play a harmless joke on this year but remember you only have until 12 o'clock lunchtime to do it!

Have a great week.
God Bless.
