Children's Newsletter

Another two weeks have flown by and we are now in February. This week is Storytelling week and I have been thinking about some of my favourite books that I read to my boys when they were small. One they really loved was Brown Bear, Brown Bear and they knew it off by heart. Books can take us to magical places, there are so many different kinds to read. I'm sure you will all have your favourite book and maybe this week you could spend some time sharing it with someone who is special to you. I hope we see you at our family worship on Sunday where we will be listening to a story about a Lost Sheep. Have a great week.

God Bless.

Lisa

Question of the week!

Would you rather be a rainbow or a cloud? Why?

Prayer Corner

Jesus, you are the light of the world.

May we live our lives as you taught,

so that your light will shine through us in all we think and say and do.

Amen

Candlemas jars

You will need

Glass jar

PVA glue (thinned with a bit of water)

Sequins

1. Cover the jar with the glue.
2. Holding the jar on its side, sprinkle with sequins or glitter, turning as you go to make sure it is covered.
3. Once the glue has dried you can always cover the sequins with another layer of thinned glue to seal.
4. Pop a battery operated tea light inside and watch the jar sparkle.
