Shearings
Assault-free holiday

When the plague spared the Bavarian village of Oberammergau in 1634, its people vowed to perform the story of Christ every decade – and in 2030, they honour it for the 43rd time. Around 2,000 locals take to an open-air stage beneath the mountains, and tickets go years in advance. We've secured yours, plus sorted the comfy coach travel, hotels and a brilliant itinerary alongside. It's a bucket-list experience for anyone, and one that's worth the anticipation
