Benefice News And Events

Discover... St Nicholas Church and Churchyard. Trails, craft, stories and play on Monday 5th August and Thursday 29th August, 10-12 for children and their grown ups. No need to book!

Can you help? We are collecting cardboard tubes, not toilet roll tubes, to make spy glasses at our Summer Discover St Nicholas Church events. We also need donations of flattened cereal boxes and milk bottle tops. Also if you have any board games suitable for children to play, and Lego, we are hoping to make a model of the church! There will be a box for them in the Tower Room.

Fun, Food and Fellowship. If you would like to share a day with others, enjoy a roast dinner, then come and join us on Thursday 25th July. Coffee served from 10.45. Invitations available in the Tower Room or ring Judith 488331. If you can offer a cake for tea, please sign the list in the Tower Room.

Transcend Unplugged. 'Transcend Unplugged' will be an evening of song, opera, and musical theatre performed by Sam Young (Baritone) and Gillian Holmes (Piano).

Hosted in the intimate setting of the Chapel at St Peter's School, York, guests can expect a varied programme to include Vaughan Williams' 'Songs of Travel', alongside operatic arias by Mozart, Rossini and Korngold and a selection of songs from musical theatre.

This event is a Transcend Sarcoma fundraiser with all funds being directly allocated to Sarcoma research. Transcend is raising awareness and funding for Soft Tissue Sarcoma research bringing people together through music, movement, art and food. You can read more about the work Transcend are doing here: Transcend Sarcoma (@transcendsarcoma) • Instagram photos and videos

Doors open at 6:30pm for refreshments with the performance due to begin at 7:30pm.

The link to the tickets and details of the event can be found here: Transcend Unplugged - an evening of song, opera and musical theatre Tickets, Fri 20 Sep 2024 at 18:30 | Eventbrite
