Giving Campaign

29th Sept - 6th October

In our benefice service this week Rev Kath will be launching our giving campaign, reflecting on why we give, different ways to give and how we give. Information packs will be given out, and boxes ready in each of our churches until the end of October for the response forms.

Little People. Little People for under 5s and their grown ups is on Tuesdays at 1.30pm - do join us! No booking required.

Harvest Flowers at St Nicholas. If you have any flowers in your garden, our flower arrangers would love to have them to decorate the Church. Please leave them in the buckets in the entrance to the Tower Room by Thursday 10th October, or speak to Joan.

Two paid Job Opportunities

Communications Officer: Editing the Grapevine and producing the weekly newsletter. This job requires computer experience in word processing, desktop publishing and emails, the ability to work to deadlines and some knowledge of invoicing.

Children and Families Worker: Developing our vision and building teams to support new and current work with children and families across our benefice.

If you're interested in either of these jobs please contact Rev Kath for more information. Job descriptions and application information is now available.

Goodbye and thank you

This is my last newsletter, so I just wanted to say thank you to everyone I've met whilst I've been in post and a huge thank you for the opportunity. Helen Cross

Regular and upcoming activities

Season of Invitation

From September to December there are many festival services that would be suitable for inviting friends to join in with. Why not make it part of your worship this Autumn to bring someone new along to our Harvest, Remembrance, Advent and Christmas services?

Harvest Festivals. Each of our churches are having a Harvest Festival: Dunnington and Stockton are celebrating on 13th October, and instead of asking for gifts of food we are asking for gifts of money which will be shared between Carecent and the York Foodbank.

Dunnington school Harvest services on Tuesday 8th October at 10am and 11am. This will mean that church is unavailable for private prayer between 9.30am and 12 on that day.

Derwent Deanery. Derwent Deanery has three annual joint Eucharists for all worshippers in our area. You are warmly invited to join us for the next one: we will celebrate St Luke's Day with a Eucharist incorporating a Service of Healing on 17 October at St Helen's, Wheldrake at 7.30pm. It will be led by Revd Kath and a team from our own benefice, and live-streamed from there for those unable to be there in person.

Bible Study and Prayer

Benefice House Group 16th October 7.30pm. The monthly House Group which meets on the 3rd Wednesday in the month will next meet on 16th October at Fair View, Warthill YO19 5XW. We will be using Rev Tim Eady's book 'Jesus under the microscope' as a basis for our Bible study and discussion. It would be helpful for people to have a copy of the book which is available from Andrew or Susan Wilson. New people will be most welcome to join the group.
